Privacy Notice

Once a member of Walton Hall Golf Club, your personal and membership details will be entered and maintained within our current handicapping software system and will be used to communicate with you, manage your handicap (if a home player) and calculate your annual membership subscription.

In addition, Walton Hall Golf Club may be required to disclose member's information to England Golf - so that England Golf can provide the full benefits of membership. England Golf requires personal data regarding club members such as name, gender and year of birth in order to monitor and run the central database of handicaps (CDH).

Should you leave the Club in the future, then your details will be deleted within 2 months of the Club receiving your resignation letter.

Should you wish to withdraw consent at any time regarding how we communicate with you, then you must put this request in writing to the Club Secretary.

It is your responsibility, to inform the Club Secretary in writing, of any changes in your personal and or membership details.
