

Ladies' Membership

A major advantage of joining a club like WHGC is the opportunity to gain or maintain a handicap, and play competitive golf with the opportunity to win a host of prizes, at a cost-effective price compared with many private clubs. For the fees at private clubs to provide value for money it can mean having to play a minimum of two or three times a week throughout the whole year to warrant the expense.

WHGC is different: once the relevant fee below is paid you only then pay for each round you play on the day. This permits greater flexibility when other commitments – such as holidays – can mean you miss out on several weeks of play or, as experienced this winter, weather conditions are such that you do not always wish to play.

By agreement with the Executive Committee a reduced fee maybe applicable if joining part way through the year. So, whatever the time of year you become a member of WHGC you are guaranteed value for money.

New Members

Ladies without handicaps will need to submit 3 or more cards totalling 54 holes that are marked by an existing member. The computer will allocate a Handicap Index based on the cards submitted in keeping with rules of England Golf. While those with CDH numbers will need to provide this information on application to ensure their golfing history is maintained.
